

S – O – A – P

Use this as a guide when writing in your Life Journal.

Scripture: Write down the scripture or scriptures that seem to most speak to your heart.

Observation: Write down what you see in the scripture.

Application: Write down how you will apply the scripture and how you will be different today because of what you have read.

Prayer: Write out a short prayer for what you have written.